INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors of
The Center for Effective Philanthropy, Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial position of The Center for Effective Philanthropy, Inc. (a Massachusetts corporation, not for profit) as of December 31, 2010 and 2009 and the related statements of activities and changes in net assets, cash flows and functional expenses for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of The Center for Effective Philanthropy's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Center for Effective Philanthropy, Inc. as of December 31, 2010 and 2009 and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2010 AND 2009

1. OPERATIONS AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

OPERATIONS

The Center For Effective Philanthropy, Inc. (CEP) is a nonprofit organization with a mission to provide data and create insight so philanthropic funders can better define, assess, and improve their effectiveness – and as a result, their intended impact. CEP’s research, assessment tools and programming are widely utilized by chief executive officers, trustees and senior executives of the country’s several hundred largest foundations. CEP has offices in Cambridge, Massachusetts and San Francisco, California.

CEP is exempt from Federal income taxes as an organization (not a private foundation) formed for charitable purposes under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. CEP is also exempt from state income taxes. Donors may deduct contributions made to CEP within Internal Revenue Code requirements.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Management’s Review

In preparing these financial statements, CEP has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through March 21, 2011, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Classification and Reporting of Net Assets

CEP’s financial statement presentation follows the recommendations of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) in ASC 958, Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Organizations. Under ASC 958, CEP is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets and permanently restricted net assets.

Unrestricted net assets include the following:

- Operating net assets represent amounts that bear no external restrictions and are currently available for operations.
- Board designated net assets represent funds set aside by the Board of Directors to establish a working capital reserve. Funds may only be used upon approval of the Board of Directors.
- Fixed asset net assets represent the net book value of CEP’s equipment and leasehold improvements, net of related debt.

Temporarily restricted net assets represent contributions and grants whose use by CEP is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that either expire by the passage of time or can be fulfilled and removed by actions of CEP pursuant to those stipulations.

Permanently restricted net assets represent contributions and other inflows of assets whose use by CEP is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that neither expire by the passage of time nor can be fulfilled and removed by actions of the organization pursuant to those stipulations. CEP had no permanently restricted net assets as of December 31, 2010 or 2009.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents includes cash in banks, money market accounts and certificates of deposit with a maturity of three months or less. At December 31, 2010, there were no certificates of deposit included in cash and cash equivalents. Certificates of deposit totaling $719,937 as of December 31, 2009 are included in cash equivalents in the accompanying financial statements.

Investments

CEP follows FASB ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements. FASB ASC 820 defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”), and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. Under FASB ASC 820, fair value refers to the price that would be received to sell an asset or to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants in the market in which the reporting entity transacts. It clarifies the principle that fair value should be based on the assumptions market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability. In support of this principle, FASB ASC 820 establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the information used to develop those assumptions. Under FASB ASC 820, fair value measurements are separately disclosed by level within the fair value hierarchy.

Investments measured and reported at fair value are classified and disclosed in one of the following categories:

Level I: Quoted prices are available in active markets for identical investments as of the reporting date.

Level II: Pricing inputs are other than quoted prices in active markets of comparable investments, which are either directly or indirectly observable as of the reporting date, and fair value is determined through the use of models or other valuation methodologies.

Level III: Pricing inputs are unobservable for the investment and include situations where there is little, if any, market activity for the investment.

Investments include listed equity or debt instruments which are publicly traded, and whose fair value is therefore classified and disclosed as Level I. Investments, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. As such, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investments will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.
